About The Model

This inviting home offers comfortable spaces and thoughtful touches that make a house feel like home. The kitchen is designed for real life, with beautiful quartz countertops, an island that gives you extra workspace plus a pantry for keeping the kitchen neat and organized. Outside, the south-facing backyard is ready for summer evenings, backyard play, gardening, or simply enjoying a little sunshine. The front and back yards have sod and full automatic sprinklers for easy maintenance. If you've been looking for a home that... See site for more info.
